

Help your clients get their ducks in a row

- Writing and reviewing their will
- Arranging a lasting power of attorney
- Protecting their assets
- Expressing their funeral wishes

“Over 50% of people don’t have a will and 78% of people don’t have a lasting power of attorney.”

Our trusted partner,
Co-op Legal Services,
can help your clients
get their ducks in a row.

Make sure your clients have control and certainty over what will happen to their assets and possessions in the future.

It's easy for you to refer your clients for an expert, jargon-free and price-transparent service.

Five reasons

why Co-op Legal Services are the perfect partner to provide your clients with expert legal advice.

1

Trusted and experienced

One of the most experienced providers of legal services in the UK, Co-op Legal Services are a trusted brand and part of the Co-op Group, a business that puts purpose above profits. Their pricing is transparent and fees fixed.

They have an Excellent ranking on Trustpilot with more than 5000 reviews.

Giving your clients certainty about their future

From writing a will, to setting up a trust, to appointing a lasting power of attorney, make sure your clients' assets are protected against property fraud, care fees and more.

3

Easy to use

Use Co-op Legal Services simple referral hub to request a call back on behalf of your client or book an appointment.

4

Commission structure

The average client cost, per new instruction, is between £650-£850, and your commission would be from £70 to £90.

5

Peace of mind

Co-op Legal Services are authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). All work is insured and all client money is protected under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).
